

468 Hope Street,
Providence, R.I.
Apr. 26, 1911.

Dear Dr. Kennedy:-

I am filling out a blank application in connection government work on the chestnut bark disease. I am filling out a more elaborate blank than usual, hoping that I may thereby improve matters for myself. There is one place where I have to give the names and addresses of five persons who have knowledge of my "character, experience, and ability". Are you willing that I should use your name as one of these?

I was very glad to see you at the American Academy meeting. It was a delightful affair, including the dinner in the evening. I hope you are enjoying the best of health. These last few pleasant days seem like real Spring.

Cordially,

Collins, J. Franklin. 1911. "Collins, James Franklin Apr. 26, 1911 [Collins to G.G. Kennedy]." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258528>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/275137>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.