Dear Collins

I have to thank you for the Postal Cards giving me some idea of your Southern Wanderings. I have no doubt you saw many funny sights in your back woods wanderings.

I suppose now you are at home & perhaps arranging to come to the Botanical Club on Friday evening. If so I trust you will find it possible and convenient to spend the day with me, and I will let you get to the Club at about the usual hour. We might walk to the top of Blue Hill to see the Rotch Memorial and I have forest

matters on which I
want your advice
so that you can see
we shall be able to spend the day profitably;

So much change has been made in trains
that I hardly venture to suggest but I make one as follows.
Lv Prov. 10.05. arr Boston 11.24.
Lv Boston 11.54. arr Readville 12.14.
where I will meet you.

With my kind regards

very truly yours
