

October 1, 1916

Dear Dr. Kennedy:-

Dr. Perley Spaulding and I are planning in a general way to attend the meeting of the New England Botanical Club on Friday evening.

We have been wondering if you have returned from the mountains, and if it would be entirely agreeable to you if we planned the Blue Hill trip for that day. It now looks as if both of us could get away on that day, if it should seem desirable to do so, and the weather is favorable. We shall not plan to visit Blue Hill on that day unless we hear from you that that date will be as convenient to you as a later one.

With best regards to you and all your folks.

Very truly.

Collins, J. Franklin. 1916. "Collins, James Franklin Oct. 1, 1916 [Collins to G.G. Kennedy]." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258528>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/275159>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.