

Groton, Mass.,

Feb. 1, 1906.

Dear Mr. Collins, -

As I can't get off for the Club meeting this month, I will write a few lines in reference to your letter of yesterday. It seems to me a good idea to write and get Mr. Healey's terms, if you can do so conveniently, so we can know the exact cost. It is evidently a good comfortable place for such a sojourn, but will the flora be extensive enough to satisfy the crowd? I am going to write to Dr. Fellows about it, and get his views, ^{as he mentioned Bingham} Thank you very much for writing to Mr. Mayfield. His terms are very reasonable indeed.

I will try to look in on you before church, fairly early (say 9) on Feb. 11, and I trust we can reach some final conclusions then.

Very truly,

C. H. Knowlton
