

321 Columbus Ave.

Boston, Mar. 25, 1906.

Dear Mr. Collins, —

I have just moved into the city, and entered on a new occupation, the publishing business. I am sure I shall like it very much indeed, though I shall miss the long botanical vacation in summer. I shall try to keep up, however.

I enclose a prospectus which I <sup>think</sup> ~~thing~~ covers the ground, though it can easily be made more or less definite, as you think best. The Somerset R.R. won't come down below $1.98 round trip from Oakland. I will send ~~it~~ the announcement to Mr. Norton, as soon as I hear from you. I think you had better write the final prospectus, if possible, so as to add more local color. That half-tone picture of the camps would prove a good drawing card, I think.

Most sincerely,

C. H. Knowlton

Knowlton, Clarence Hinckley. 1906. "Knowlton, Clarence H. Mar. 25, 1906."
James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258528>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/275183>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.