

31 Oak St. Providence

May 14, 1892.

Mr. J. F. Collins.

Dear Sir:

I am very glad
of this opportunity to go out with you and hope
the day may be a pleasant one and our trip
successful in every way.

I have no doubt you have in mind some localities which you wish to visit and I shall be pleased to leave the arrangements

for the trip entirely with
you. The locality
will make no particular difference to me.
It is only necessary to arrange a place and time of meeting. If you will suggest one
I will let you know whether I can be there or not. I should think an early start
might be desirable.
Please let me hear
from you as soon
as your arrangements
are made.

Yours very sincerely,
H. J. V. Osterhout.
