

& have a bully time.

The trip via. New Bedford is cheap & pleasant & if you can possibly get away come for a few days you must surely come.

Sincerely yours.

Woods Hole, Mass.
July 2, 1894.

My dear Mr. Collins,
Prof Bailey writes me that you are steadily at it every night and I hope you will not overdo the matter. Why can't you arrange to run down here for a little vacation. You can bunk with us & we are very pleasantly located. The place is well worth seeing, and you will meet a number of botanists among whom you will doubtless find congenial

spirits.

It is always cool &
there is plenty of sea-
bathing, rowing etc
& there are some interesting fl. plants, e.g.
Drosera filiformis
Coreopsis rosea, Hibiscus Moscheutos & one

Market, easily accessible from here, Car-reua Cornatic & some very rare
Polanoplaus etc.

The Nat. launch makes several trips
daily about the islands & there is the fresh Commission mark
an interesting study in itself.

Barley is coming down &
Mrs. Bailey - they met some there
