My Dear Mr. Collins: -

The pictures have come and the labels too and I am delighted with both. I will send the money for the pictures early next week. It has been very generous in you to take so much time with them. I am surprised that you have been able to fill out the labels so well.

I may write to you later for identification for four of the St.
Lawrence ruins in the vicinity of Chelmsford. Many of them I shall be able to make out by consulting the map, and most I recognize offhand.
It is unnecessary to hope that I may see you at the next Club meeting. One with your readiness would feel unsettled by the expression of such a hope. Sincerely, A.S.P.
