

June 25 1909

My dear Collins=

Thanks for the Card - reminder that even Chestnuts had not driven Providence from your mind -

Commencement week was all that could be desired but since then the weather has driven all idea of exertion out of sight.

Even the thought of finding the Bur-Oak would excite no enthusiasm now. No nor the Mountain Ash - but possibly a cool spring might - or a bottle of cold beer like that.

at Wallum last year on our return from Round Ponds.

This morning I came across Stevens map of R. I 1831 which had one pond only called Eddys Pond.

Bailey goes to-morrow to Tausset (spelling not certified). More news there is not save I thought I saw Beebe? that false Linnaea man on Baileys doorsteps this noontime

Too hot to write more - If not too much exertion let me hear from you

Yours very truly
A. W. Weston

Preston, Howard W. 1909. "Preston, Howard W. June 25, 1909." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258623>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/275578>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.