Cambridge. 23<sup>d</sup> Feb 1853

Dear Wright

So you are to be delayed yet sometime in sailing. - a pity.
Well, you can get what looks you want all ready, & I'll the more pay.

Torrey must be very busy with the new collections, Smith Parry - for he owes me 3 or 4 letters. - even my business letters are unanswered.
I suppose he will write after his lectures are through.

Do you saw the Commissioners & every body at Washington. Did you get your back pay?

How do Graham, Bartlett, May &c - get on together there. And will Graham get any appropriation for printing now.

Pl. Whiptiane is in the birds hand. I shall get copies on Saturday. Among those I send to Washington. I will incredibly address one to Emory & Seth Graham. I trust both will be satisfied.

Where is Thacker this plate.

I have delayed sending ~~any~~ the package to Paris till Mr. W. was out, and could go with them. So I have not drawn yet. When sent however, I shall at once draw through Bridges.

Before you go you may want to use up the principal part in books &c.

When he gets returns from the Draft, we will settle up with him, & he will pay over the balance. It is not proper he should do so before he gets it, or even the draft, which is not yet made.

All of course keep you well supplied with all I write in Bellman or elsewhere.

I can send you a copy of Bellman while you are away. if you will remember to give me a proper address.

I have something in the forthcoming no. on Pythagoras

I am busy as ever, after the old sort. Expl. Exped. principally.

Hooker wrote at the time how much he was pleased with the 1st parcel of your plates.
& hopes you will do great things
