

Cambridge, April 2nd '57

My dear Mr. Wright,

I have received
several letters from you from December & February, & have been meaning all the time to write to you - But I have been very much absorbed with this new Edition of Manual, which still drags its weary length along, & instead of being finished the 1st of February, is not likely now to be done before the 1st of Southern aid.

Your subscription of $20 (to which I added a trifling $5) - has been paid and acknowledged in the newspaper. I meant to have sent it out & sent to you as a voucher - but it has got mislaid

A. G.

writes & neglected making & getting about in every way - nothing you, in the tropics!

You ask who Quaker is - He was one of the porters of an English line now in New Jersey, & whose address is - Now, say is pretty well, will be better one doesn't when spring fairly shows & the sun get not more goodly - the legs & the arms back -

He will be more delighted than I am to know that the documents have probably arrived in western. But I am not much the easier. In the Republican are too many in charge for their own good, or ours. - and it seems the best of Garrison for his way - as it should be, in the sense, I hope so. I hope the best is in the sense, I hope so. I hope

Cambridge, April 2nd '57

My dear Mr. Wright,

I have received
several letters from you from December & February, & have been meaning all
the time to write to you - But I have been very much absorbed with this
new Edition of Manual, which still
drags its weary length along, & instead
of being finished the 1st of February, is
not likely now to be done before the 1st of May - The printer follows me close, so that I am all the time hurried preparing copy & reading proofs, & now my College work has begun again -

I enclose for you a letter received from Griebach a week or two ago - I began to think he had given me up, it was so long since I had heard from him but you see it was public now felt bad. Yours ever, A. A. Love mother & mothered walking & getting a man, in the typical!

"You ask who Quaker is - He was one & was now in New Jersey, & Quaker's abode was New York is pretty well, will be better fairly please & the can get out more freely hard -

When will he run I am to know that the probably carried on by are not much the cases Republicans are too many than you, or any, - and it fact of Barren for should be in the Mass team for which in the Mass, I hope

Gray, Asa. 1867. "Gray, Asa Apr. 2, 1867." Charles Wright correspondence with Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/257881>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/276794>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.