

Cambridge 13th Aug
Dear Wright

We got home yesterday evening. & Mrs. Gray is sick with dysentery.

Your letter from
W. Linsens & N.Y.
was forwarded to us at the West.

Welcome here —

No letters here for you.

Come on when you like & see us —
& your things —

Banner is now here
& occupies the room at Gardner's house —

the botanical prophets chamber. —

But now there is a bed for you in the house — & in a few weeks, when Brew
has to go back — you can have that room.

If you prefer it
I don't say that
Mrs. Driver will take you in.

I will engage,
It might be best,
if you are to pass
the winter here & put in to Fl. Cult.

But I don't say you think of going back.

I have hunted in vain yet for an aid to you — who may be your substitute in Cuba.

Letters from me
to you ^{are} in Cuba.

In haste

Ever
A. Gray

Gray, Asa. 1867. "Gray, Asa Aug. 13, 1867." Charles Wright correspondence with Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/257881>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/276797>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.