

Prof Geo Gray
Cambridge
Mass

Sta Catalina de Guantamano
Ap. 26th 1867

Dear Dr.

Arrived this morning & find yours of the 8th. I didn't faint. I hope I shall bear my loss philosophically, but I am utterly confused. How can I undertake the formidable task of making again that great collection of the insectabaps - those savanas - those lagoons and more particularly climbing those mountains? I can't yet collect any ideas

You write "I enclose for you a letter received from Lynsbach &c". I don't find it

I wrote you & left the letter in Cuba yesterday to go by the Tah-kee tomorrow

Try to find somebody to take my place If I knew one could be found I would stay willingly to initiate him into the business. And I must renew my efforts to get some privileges from the Spanish Government if I have to continue my work another two years

I'll write again when I've slept a few nights on it

It seems to me that the bank ought to be liable for the pecuniary value of the plants. But you have doubtless thoughts of this

Kind regards to Mrs Gray from your afflicted friend
Chas Wright

Wright, Charles. 1867. "Wright, Charles Apr. 26, 1867." Charles Wright correspondence with Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/257972>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/277078>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.