

Fort Fairfield, Me.

July 16, 1893.

My dear Mr. Allen:

I had a letter forwarded from Cambridge from a man in Westbrook, Maine, who says he sent some plants to me at the same time for determination. If they have come to the Herbarium will you kindly send their names to A. H. Norton, Westbrook, Me.?

We are having fairly good success here, though much hampered by the daily thunder showers. I shall have a package to send to myself at the Herbarium by the middle of the week, but will write you definitely where it is sent,

I trust you are getting on well through the summer and not too much troubled by the Summer School.

With kind regards to Dr.
Robinson if still in Cambridge,
and to the ladies,

Cordially yours

Merritt Lyndon Fernald.

After next Thursday my address will be Van Buren, Maine till a week after, when it will be Madawaska.

Fernald, Merritt Lyndon. 1893. "Fernald, Merritt Lyndon July 24, 1893 [Fernald to J.A. Allen]." Merritt Lyndon Fernald correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258582>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/277116>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.