

Orono, Maine.

Sept. 11, 1893.

My dear Dr. Robinson:

I imagine you may think I have forgotten all about Cambridge and the Stubarium, I have kept away so long; but I now expect to be back again next Thursday afternoon.

As was perhaps natural, I planned much more work than it was possible to accomplish while in Acrostock Co. So I have been working hard here for the last few days, and have now nearly completed the collecting necessary to fill

Dr. Goodale's orders.

The season as a whole has been very successful, with one notwithstanding many mishaps and discouragements. I trust it has been profitable to you.

Please give my warm regards to Mrs. Robinson, Miss Brown, and Miss Day and Mr. Allen.

Sincerely yours
Merritt Lyndon Fernald.

Kindly ask Mr. Cutler to deliver my mail, as usual, in Cambridge —

Fernald, Merritt Lyndon. 1893. "Fernald, Merritt Lyndon Sept. 11, 1893 [Fernald to B.L. Robinson]." Merritt Lyndon Fernald correspondence
