

BROWN UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY.

W. WHITMAN BAILEY, A. M.,
Professor.
J. FRANKLIN COLLINS, Ph. B.,
Curator and Instructor.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 24, 1900

Dear Fernald:-

I will try and get to E. Parsonsfield for a day at least. Perhaps I may be able to go through Sunday night by boat or else Monday by train. If neither of these, will try and go on the 9 P.M. train (3d) as you suggested. Please let me know if you change your plans in this respect.

There is one point in regard to the Katahdin trip which I wish you would clear up for me. From your last card I understand (or did at first) that it is not necessary for me to carry a rubber and woollen blanket of my own. Am I correct or wrong in interpreting your card thus. A few words on a card ^{by return mail if possible} is all that is necessary to put me right.

Have sent a small bundle of driers to E. S. Rogers, also an old coat and vest.

Do you know if William, Kennedy and Churchill have decided which way and when they go to Stacyville yet?

Cordially. But hastily

J. T. Collins

468 Hope St.

Collins, J. Franklin. 1900. "Collins, James Franklin June 24, 1900 [Collins to M.L. Fernald]." James Franklin Collins materials related to Gaspé Peninsula plant collecting trips

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/260176>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/278513>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.