

"The Cavuses"
No 6 Cushing Street -
Providence - Mar 25, 1898,

My Dear Dr Kennedy,

It will give me the very greatest pleasure to join Collins on Friday next at Blue Hill, that respectable elevation, looming on the eastern horizon as one approaches the Hub, has been seen to me a prospect-tire but un-attainable Mecca.
To think of actually sitting under its shadow (that would put me in the afternoon on its eastern side - methinks), or crouching on its sunny (western) slope, is a joy indeed!

You may be glad to hear about my fund. I have raised to date $1029.

How's that?

Anticipating a jolly time - and hoping my gouty neck will not play me false - I am as ever
- with regards to Mrs Kennedy -

Truly yours
Wm Whitman & Bailey
