

Tuesday Am

Dear Dr. Kennedy: -

I am now anxious now than you can be to know who these two ladies may be.
I did not meet your friend nor talk of G. martina at any reception this time.

But New York is a large place and I do not begin to know all the students of different colleges who live here - Still most of the people who are interested in ruins know me. Let me know the name of your friend

Constance & I may have a clue to find out the names of these ladies -

The new Edition of Dr. Barnes keeps in it. - That a stack of ink sent - very late here for us & sends! - and how few there are who care & will help to get things right! -

Cordially yours

Elizabeth G. Butler.

Britton, Elizabeth G. 1897. "Britton, Elizabeth G. [Jan/Feb 1897]." George Golding Kennedy correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/172484>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/284039>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.