

New York Botanical Garden,

Bronx Park,

New York City.

March 14th. 1901.

Dear Dr. Kennedy: This is to wish you a Merry Springtime and tell you that the red flower from the greenhouse is called Kennedy's rubiflora and has just begun to bloom - I thought of you as soon as I saw it - and picked it to send to you, to assure you that though Dr. Robinson & Mr. Bicknell may be at odds over Aprimonia - you & I have not quarrelled yet - I have been trying to get a lot of mounting & accumulation of back work on the collection I want to keep my promise by sending you Adirondack duplicates. With kind regards to Mrs. Kennedy believe me very sincerely yours Elizabeth B. Britton

Britton, Elizabeth G. 1901. "Britton, Elizabeth G. 19 Mar 1901." George Golding Kennedy correspondence
