

New York Botanical Garden,

Bronx Park,

New York City.

April 12th 1901.

Dear Dr. Kennedy-

The portrait of Edwin Falcon has reached us safely and is very fine! It will be a welcome addition to our collection - I had a photograph taken in January - and will send you one - but Mr. Britton is obdurate & has not been photographed for 15 years - He objects showing his position in papers & journals &c. The group printed for the Paris Congress shows him as an old crazy man! We have had a good laugh over it!

In fact groups of botanists are not beautiful pictures, as a rule.
I often laugh over our Emory Club excursions & hear humorous accounts of our meetings. The Alldis meeting too - the faces don't characterise but not so much beauty. - After this Symposium I will proceed to send you my photo. -

With kind regards to Mrs. Kennedy & thanks for the address of the photographer of Sirius area believe me cordially yours

Elizabeth G. Britton
