

assemblage! Truly, I wish you could have been here.

Mrs. Robinson played for us, and Mr. Mathews gave us an illustration of bird-music.

Well, I guess bed is the place for me. Good night with much love to all and so many thanks for the delightful talk.

Sincerely
Walter Deane

29 Brewster Street
Cambridge Mass.

April 22 / 1908.

Dear Dr. Kennedy,

It was so good of you to come out so early this morning to congratulate me for following faithfully in your footsteps and to leave me such a beautiful talk. I want to thank after dinner and, feeling pretty tired, was thinking of going to bed when the wonderful surprise party that Thayer said you did ^{just} you could come to, came off. I was completely fostered in every detail. Even my pants was filled with 23 people, and I started from plain to outdoor in surprising telephone call when I found that read you more than I feel I did this morning. I shall read the book very soon, for such a narrative especially appeals to me. I am so glad that I was at home.

Yours was my first greeting.
How relative age is. Dear me, how aged & antique I thought sixty was when I was in college. x x x 11 P.M. A wonderful interval; I was writing this line to you

Deane, Walter. 1908. "Deane, Walter 22 Apr 1908." George Golding Kennedy correspondence
