

We are all well excepting Mrs. Coolidge who suffers a good deal from a sort of neuritis in her hands especially.
She requires much attention and another nurse is a part duty. She is 90 next July and one can't expect much recovery from this trouble

I fear. It is hard Margaret joins in much love to all
Ever

Dear Dr. Kennedy,

I want a line to reach you on my birthday to-morrow. Only 64 years.
You will call that young.
Dr. Coolidge is 94  $\frac{1}{2}$  years.
Still each to himself.

As occasion comes, I sit down, open 'The Book of Bridges' and my map, and the pictures I have of the particular broil at hand and read a chapter carefully. I must tell you it is simply fascinating.

In the review you enclosed the writer says, "If he is a Frenchman . . . he has acquired a marvellous command of English - If it is a translation, we offer our compliments to the translator." That is true It is simply delightful. And there is so much pleasant in - formation about the particular broil discussed I have been over these so much that I think I could go about with my eyes shut.

The colour sketches are beautiful.
My niece who has been so much in Paris is fascinated with them.
I shall be sorry to furnish the book -
