

Cambridge, Mass.

February 5, 1913

Dear Dr. Renny,

Another red letter day!
What a delightful time and what good and kind people I loved & her father are!

There — I was in the house at 6.20, which is good time. The Pancake is in the package —

I don't think you had a chance to read the enclosed which is most interesting. You may have read it when Milord &

I were in northern India.

What a lot we did and how the time does fly
at The Pines. In the next Local Flora paper you will see the name
"The Pines" used -

Margaret has been so interested in my accounts of the day.

Give Milord much love and how I wish I could see you Friday evening.

Sincerely
Walter Deane
