

21 Dunster Hall,
Cambridge, Oct. 16, 1900

Dear Dr. Kennedy.

I have just been over the Keadon account, in view of the additional data which Williams has just sent me,
and I make it out as follows—

Rogers' account, as per bill of
of July 18, paid by her	532.55
Kennedy's account	11.00
Williams' account	21.93
Total Expense	$565.48

Deducting the shares of Churchill
($100) Collins ($50) and myself ($50),
and Camp Kennedy ($100) leaves $265.48, which Williams tells me
is to be divided between you & him.

Your own bill, then, as I make it,
is Camp Kennedy $100.00
Expenses of Trip 132.74
$232.74

I had $300 from you on June 30 -
and I am now sending you a check for $67.26 which squares our account I think.

I wish to thank you most heartily for making this trip possible for me. That I got a first class out of it you know already - and by & by you may expect a package of the flowering plants much dearer
than when you last saw them.

Sincerely yours

Merritt S. Stannard.
