

Cambridge Jan 17

My dear Sir,

I was afraid, from not hearing from you, that you might have gone away for the winter, but your note of Sat^y reassures me. I am very glad that you are willing to serve on our Committee. Its duties are not arduous but, on the whole, rather agreeable. I shall send you a copy of my report as soon as the printer give it to me.

Yours very sincerely

J. A. Goodale
