

Cambridge Dec 28

Dear Dr Kennedy

In the "Spectator" of London, Nov. 29, which has just come to hand, there is an appreciative notice of two books with these titles:-

- (1) Lip-reading. Principles and Practice, by Edward B. Sitch-in (Methuen & Co. 5s. net) and
- (2) Help for the Deaf: What Lip-reading is. By E. R. Boulton, (Hodder & Stoughton 2s. 6d net)

It occurred to me that perhaps Mildred might be interested in these treatises on the Art which she has learned so well.

I was sure that you would be surprised at the amount of ink which can be held by a single pen of simple form. I now send another sort from my large collection.

This is known as the "Camel" pen, and it humps across the page with its load, for about thirty journeys!

As soon as Mrs.
S. and I return from a short ^{visit} ~~journey~~ which ^{we} are planning to make in Saco, we shall arrange for the Museum call for you all which we have spoken of.

With every good wish for the New Year from us all to you all, I remain Yours faithfully
S. L. S.
