

Middlebury Vt. Nov. 8. 1918.

My dear Mr. Deane:

I am much pleased to get your friendly letter of Nov. 1st.
You surely are a faithful friend.

I am glad to say that I have nearly recovered from the severe strain of my operation last May, & rejoice in the assurance of my Doctor that in a few weeks I shall probably be quite recovered.

Now this awful world-war is practically over. We may hope when the winter is past to meet again as of yore. I shall certainly go down to see my brother, Dr. John, of whose sad loss ~~I presume~~ you have heard.

Sincerely,

Ezra Brauer
