

Cambridge Mass
Mar 3-1896.

Dear Dr. Davenport:

Thank you very
kindly for your paper
as well as your kind words in regard to my paper on Mr. Beble,

I read your paper through carefully and I admire its calmness and its force. Surely there must be a reaction.

This question of sentiment has not been used

with much force by
the radicals.

In my paper, on page 54, last line but one,
change first letter b
to g - It was all right in the proof
sheets, and was changed

after I returned them.
Come out and dine with us very sociably to-morrow at 6, and we will go together to Dr. Goodale's.
That will be easier for
you. Sincerely yours

W. Deane.
