

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY
CHICAGO

February 28, 1910.

Mr. Walter Deane,
29 Brewster Street,
Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Deane:

I have your postal card this morning and regret to say that on looking over my file of letters I find that I have neglected to acknowledge the receipt of the interesting series of 26 sheets of plants that you so kindly sent to this Museum. In reality, I supposed that, as usual, the Office of the institution had acknowledged receipt of the package. Please accept my most sincere thanks for your kindness in sending these sheets. They add a deal of interest to the species represented.

I enclose you a file copy of a letter I wrote you on the 3rd instant in which I acknowledged the interesting specimen of fruiting Euphorbia, thinking that perhaps this letter might have gone astray, I send it for the reason, also, that as it contained besides my represented acknowledgement a list of your plants as ~~contained~~ in this herbarium.

With best regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

F. H. C. Sargent
Curator, Department of Botany.

ENCLOSURE.

Millspaugh, Charles Frederick. 1910. "Millspaugh, Charles Frederick Feb. 28, 1910." Walter Deane correspondence
