Mr. H. S. Davenport

My dear Sir

I have the pleasure of acknowledging ^{the} receipt of your "Catalogue" re. Your notes are of very great value & interest, and such a description as you here record of all the specimens with sources whence derived, is so far as I know unique in form literature - No price is mentioned on the Catalogue - I enclose

$1.00 at random. The Catalogue is worth much more & the few losses; I shall cheerfully add more if that is less than you find them at; if it be more, shall be glad of another copy.

Very W^t Yrs Addison from

P.S. You seem to me to have given mere acknowledgement ments by slavish cuttings of others, than those meagre new derived - with thanks A.S.
