Cambridge Mass.
Sept-25-1885.

Mr. Geo. E. Davenport.

Dear Sir.

I have but a moment before going to town to thank you for the Ferns that came last evening. I am perfectly delighted and though you wish me to consider myself under no obligations, you must know the pleasure it gives to have these gaps in my Herbarium filled up. I shall hope to thank you in person if you leave my fern and Rhod. at yr office.

Very truly yrs. Walter Deane.
