

Champlain, Vermont

Aug., 15th/76.

Dear Mr. Davenport:

Your first sending of 7.

Common came most opportunely,
was very to have been the cause of sending you out at such time;
your second sending is quite as valuable and sends me to hope you are better. The roots are placed to your credit; pray tell me how much they cost you.

Do I do wrong to say that I am in need of 30 roots of each of the Wood-wards, and

20 of Botrych, Trisetum, var-dissectum? Will pay money for them; but, if I prefer you, tell me so. Am hard botanizing now.
Asplenium viride from Mr.
Mansfield!

Yours truly,

C. G. Pringle.
