

H

Charlotte, Vermont.

6, Dec., 1886.

My dear Mr. Farnsworth,

Once more it is my sweet privilege to write you from home at the ^{happy} end of another Mexican journey, and to send you a few rare pens. On this journey everything went well. As I trod strange mountains through the warm golden days of autumn and gathered strange plants I was supremely happy. I have never had better health or been capable of severer toil. I have gathered material for another distribution, if a small one, — 125 species for Oct and enough besides to make some 10,000 specimens.

I trust it is a good omen for another year.

I have sent you all my ferns, and trust you will find one or two of unusual interest—in this lot, as before.

Not another station found for Adiantum tricholepis! It surely is rare about Chihuahua. But in the wonderful cañons of the Conchos and the Rio Grande shall yet be found any quantity of it. I am confident.

I looked over the collection of a missionary friend, (Rev. Mr. Crawford) made at Guadalupe, where Fr. Palmer went last July, some I knew; some others of which I secured bits for you, not so.

I hope soon to hear from you, and to be informed that you are in better health than when you addressed me at Chihuahua.

And please tell me how much I am in your debt for photo. work done this year. I left my camera at home this last time. Yours faithfully,

C. G. Pringle.

Pringle, Cyrus G. 1886. "Pringle, C.G. Dec 6, 1886." George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/175072>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/290851>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.