My Dear Davenport

Yours just received with enclosed check. About the one you gave Mr Hurd. I would not worry myself about it. He has been very good and I think he is a man in very poor health and probably dying. I may tell you now that I think by the end of this week I shall have my new company organized.
I hope then to be able to do pretty much as I please and not be hampered as I have been. When I get things settled I may have to take a trip East on business matters. I of course will take a run to Boston.
It seems to me that you have paid me too much. I know you have done more for me in this matter than any one I know, and I shall not forget it either. I have got a very bad cold I will write you more fully in a few days. Yours J. W.
