

Washington D.C.
Oct. 10th /890

My dear Deane:

I know you will pardon my long delay when I tell you I am all alone, Dr Vasey being in the West & Coville on a wedding journey. Beside special work in great abundance I have charge of 12 clerks & assistants which puts on a strain all the time. I return a part of your list today & will send the others shortly. I also send you a few good things now but hope to send you more later on.

If you do not get "The Grasses of the Southwest" Bull. no 12 made of a week let me know. It is a beauty. I am reading the last proof for Cont No 3. It will soon be out

It contains "Cultivella".

Mr. Watson compliment was very much appreciated, but I am sorry it was not clearer.

This is the way we found David being possessions are described by one of his western friends "He has a post office, a drug store, a law office, a wife & a daughter."

Yours truly
J. P. Rose

Rose, J. N. 1890. "Rose, Joseph Nelson Oct. 15, 1890." Joseph Nelson Rose letters to Walter Deane

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/160655>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/297598>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.