

My Dear Dr, Providence, Apr 7, 1894.

For some inscrutable reason, maybe for my conspicuous virtues, I have had two copies sent me of the "Botany of Death Valley" by Coville. Now, if you have it not, I will be tickled to send you one of these. Let me know, that I may gather the mantle of Charity about me. The those red maples and dandelions down here. I suppose you still shiver among the Liebens, protocecci, and other figid plants. Hunt week of Spring term closed, and a Te Deum ordered for tomorrow.

Yours ever
W. W. B.
