

1464 R. I. Ave.

Washington D. C.

March 5, 1890.

My Dear Mr. Deane:-

It is due to you to say that after all this long delay our Wittstein has at last come. I am now having the work you once did for me done by Prof. Burgess of this city, and as he needs it more than I, I turned it over to him. I would probably occasionally use your copy if allowed to remain on my shelves for a few months, but could do without it now and if you are likely to have any use for it at all I will return it at once, otherwise

I will see that no harm befalls it.

As spring approaches
I think more of our good times botanizing and of your excellent friend the Judge and our trips to Chain Bridge, Wilton, and Blue Hill. I hope other similar good times are in store for us. Pray remember me kindly to all my friends there. Mrs. Ward joins in sending kind regards. Prof. & Mrs.
Burgess have been making her well lately by recounting their visit to Leonard last summer where they met the same people that we did and were received with the same cordiality. She was pleased to learn that they all seemed to remember our visit.

Yours most sincerely
Dexter G. Ward

Ward, Lester F. 1890. "Ward, Lester Frank Mar. 5, 1890." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304059>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.