

1464 R. I. Ave.

Washington, D. C.

Oct. 26, 1896.

My Dear Deane:

I am
booked for a lecture before the Home Congress at Coltellion Hall, Huntington Ave., Boston, on Friday next (Oct. 30) at 10-30 a.m.
The lecture would not interest you, but I shall probably have to return Friday night, and shall not have time to go to Cambridge. I should be very sorry not to see you and Mrs. Deane. I shall stop at the Copley Square Hotel and expect to arrive on the Colonial Express Thursday night. If you should happen to be over in that part of Boston during my stay it would be a great pleasure to meet you.

I fear I am indebted to you for a number of unacknowledged favours, for which I wish now to express my tardy but not less heartfelt thanks. Mrs. Ward asks to be kindly remembered to you and all the kind people to whom through you we are both so deeply indebted.

Yours most sincerely
Lester F. Ward
