

Dallas, Texas

Feb. 1, 1926

Dear Mr. Deane:-

Thank you very much for your letters - They are good to get in a lousy time. The worst of it has been since my mother wrote you: after getting a little better, Mr. Foster had a severe relapse, the doctor gave up hope and we spent our whole day and night expecting that each hour would be his last.

But he has rallied, almost miraculously, and is now better again. Though after so many disappointments we hardly dare to hope. - The weather is wonderful here: clear and just comfortably cool like our finest fall days at home. Love from both to both of you Cdr

Weatherby, Charles Alfred. 1926. "Weatherby, Charles Alfred Feb. 1, 1926 [Postcard]." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304144>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.