ANNOTEL-PARIS

Dear Mr. Deane,

Here are some postcards made from pictures of old Paris bridges. Perhaps you have them already, but we thought of you the other day when we saw these pictures at the Hôtel Carnavalet, a museum of the history of Paris.
France is treating us badly again in regard to weather

This is the third day of intense heat, really unprecedented in May, & we find it almost impossible to do anything but sit & gasp for breath. Except for the heat, the city is beautiful with all the horse-chestnuts, white & pink in full blossom.

We both send our best love to you & hope that you are well & enjoying the spring in Cambridge.

Affectionately yours,
Blanche E. Williams

Please remember us most kindly to Miss Brown.
