Mr. Walter Deane,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Deane:--

I am just in receipt of your kind postal card this afternoon. I have almost given up my trip for a month or so until the weather is warmer as I am very sensitive to cold and would not like to be East during a cold spell. If the weather reports from the East are favorable for warm weather I may come on next week but in any event I will stop at New York for several days before going to Boston and will advise you definitely from New York when I will arrive in your city. I thank you for your kind offer to meet me at the hotel.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Yours truly,

C. G. Lloyd
