Walter Deane Esq.

My Dear Sir:

I have at last got your plants together, I believe 75.
As I was unable to do much in botany this summer the most of them are ^{those} such as I had left over from last winter. You may keep such as you wish to preserve and the remainder you may either return or destroy, or deposit in the Harvard or Gray herbarium. Hoping that they will reach you in good order I am Yours truly
Oliver A. Farwell
