

ST. MARK'S SCHOOL
SOUTHBOROUGH
MASSACHUSETTS

9 October, 1924

Dear Mr. Deane,

Yes, the School has reopened, and I am hard at work again after a very busy and most interesting summer in France.

It is a pleasure to hear from you and to know that you recall the matter of the photograph, which we plan to have suitably framed to hang in the editorial room of "The Vindex."

As to the size of the photograph, I can make no very definite suggestions. The photographers, I believe, have certain standard terms for various sizes, but with these I am unfamiliar. I had in mind, however, a picture of what in my ignorance of the subject I should call about the ordinary or average size, such as the photograph of yourself which you sent me last spring, or a trifle larger. But I should prefer to leave the size to your judgment, as well as the position.

Whatever suits you will suit us. We shall be only too glad to have the picture.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

George B. Fernald

Fernald, George B. 1924. "Fernald, George B Oct. 9, 1924." Walter Deane correspondence –.

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/159797>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/326512>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.