

Berkeley, California
8 Dec. 1888.

My Dear Sir. — The import of the slip lately addressed to subscribers to Pittoria, does not seem to be clear.

I simply meant, that part. 6, shortly to be issued, as the concluding part of vol. i., is to be paid for in advance, and I have nowhere said that part. 5 is distributed gratuitously.

I return your check for fifty cents, not because it does not cover your indebtedness, but because of my very vivid recollection of the annoyance I had in getting cash for a half-dollar check you sent me once before. Our bankers out this way seem annoyed when such little scraps ^{from many East} are handed in, and say they do not want them.

Just take your time, and await your own convenience about getting me either a lot of postage stamps, or a p.o. note or order.

According to my reckoning you have paid me for parts 1, 2, & 3. Part 4, ~~sent~~ went out last vacation time, while people were presumably away from home; and you, like others, have forgotten. Very Sincerely, Edw. L. Greene
