My dear Deane: -

I find your letter of the 27th awaiting me. It will give me great pleasure to send Dr. Gray's letter to Mrs. Gray, and I will do so immediately.

I also have your letter expressing doubt as to your ability to come west this summer. I regret very much that you think it even doubtful, for I had hoped that Mrs. Deane would be quite able to travel this summer. She ought at least to let you off long enough to come alone, and I think I shall have to send her a personal appeal to that effect.

Very truly yours

Mr. Walter Deane,
