CANE STAKES.

Neat, light, strong and durable. The cheapest article that can be used by Florists for staking pot plants.

From five to eight feet in length, price $1 00 per 100. $6 00 per 1000.

MATTHEW'S HAND CULTIVATOR.

One of the best implements in use for weeding between row crops and flat cultivation generally. It spreads from 6 to 14 inches, and will cut all the ground covered, even when spread to its widest extent. The depth of cultivation is gauged by raising or lowering the wheel. Price, $5 50 each.

THE PLANET JR. Double Wheel Hoe, Wheel Cultivator and Double Plow.

Will do the work of five to ten men with hand hoes, among market garden and root crops, small nursery stock, &c., and is especially adapted to onion culture. With this hoe the operator tends very readily both sides of a row at once, much more easily and closely than he can tend one side of each of two rows. This is an invaluable feature, especially in crops sowed on ridges. The wheels can be set four, seven or ten inches apart. It has a pair of hoes, a pair of plows, and two pairs of cultivator teeth, making it capable of every variety of work. It cuts from six to sixteen inches wide, throwing to or from the row as desired. Price $9 00.

THE PLANET JR. SINGLE WHEEL HOE, Plow and Cultivator Combined.

It combines in one tool the qualities of the Double Wheel Hoe and the Fire-fly Plow, making the work of garden and root crops quite easy, and will be preferred by many to the Double Wheel Hoe and Fire-fly separate. It has a pair of exchangeable hoes, to be used while the plants are small, to throw either to or from the row, a set of reversible cultivator teeth, and a garden plow. The wheel is adjustable in height to suit any operator. Price $6 00.

HALE'S MOLE TRAPS.

This is warranted to be the best and most complete Mole Trap ever invented, and is superior to all others in the following respects:

Owing to the arrangements for holding the spring, it is easier to set than any other trap, and cannot "startle" or injure the operator while being set.

The construction of the trap is such, that it will catch moles when quite deep in the ground, and there being no pin or other obstruction projecting into the run, there is nothing to frighten or disturb the mole as it passes, and in doing so raises the ground over the "run," (which always sinks somewhat), just enough to spring the trigger, which must firmly rest on the soil over the "run."

The points of the pins being constantly in the ground, it cannot catch or injure chickens or other domestic animals.

Cannot be blown over by wind, or injured in any manner by rain or storm, and being made entirely of metal, cannot warp, twist or get out of order, and is light, neat and durable.

The ground not being disturbed in any way, it can be set very close to the plants without injuring them; and it can be set touching a wall, fence, etc., without impairing the working of the trap in any way.

Price $2 25 each.

HAND CULTIVATORS.

Are now considered indispensable for either Florists or Market Gardeners, who plant close; say, at from 9 to 12 inches. Besides the excellent tools offered on previous pages, we have this season in our own practice, used with the most satisfactory results, a machine known as the Universal Four Blade Hoe, an illustration of which is here shown.

We have found it most suitable for general work, and in our grounds of twenty acres in close crop, it has already proved on immense saving in labor, over work done with the ordinary fork or scuffle hoe, besides cultivation is deeper, and in all respects preferable to any kind of hand hoe. Price, $5 50 each.
