KENTUCKY, Oct. 11, 1952: "Your new Fall Catalogue just received. We note with interest that you now have "Chase Bull" on the outside of your catalogue as well as on the inside. Do not know if the bull is supposed to have a contented or a disappointed look, or if the picture symbolizes the fact that inside, you are giving us the tail end of your business. Seriously, it is a nice catalogue and can see that you are encouraging employee relations with the pictures that you have of your help."

SOUTH CAROLINA, Nov. 27, 1952: "Send above by express at your convenience. We liked the plants you sent us recently and appreciate your promptness in sending them. Find check enclosed to cover above."
