Three Generations of Hendersons

Since 1847

The business house of Peter Henderson & Co. was founded in 1847 by Peter Henderson and is now carried on by the two grandsons of the founder, viz., Peter Henderson and Howard M. Henderson, thus insuring its continuance along the lines originally laid down by its founder.

At various times during the last few years rumors have been circulated to the effect that our business had been sold out to a syndicate, and that there were no longer any of the Hendersons connected with it. To offset these rumors we are devoting this page to bring to the notice of the market-gardening trade the fact that this business is entirely in the hands of the Henderson family.

It is certain that in no other business is reliability more essential than in the seed business. We are sure that every market gardener and florist realizes this fact in a very special way, because the seeds they plant are actually the foundation of their business; and it is a vital necessity that they should be of the highest possible quality.

That Henderson's Seeds fulfill this requirement is proved by the fact that PETER HENDERSON & CO. DO A LARGER BUSINESS WITH MARKET GARDENERS THAN ANY OTHER SEED HOUSE IN THE UNITED STATES.

Over twenty years ago we found that it was impossible to carry on business with dealers and jobbers to sell again, and at the same time maintain the Henderson stocks of seed in their superiority; so we discontinued that branch of our business. The jobber in seeds naturally considers low prices as the most important thing, and hence there is a dangerous tendency to sacrifice quality.

We do not sell to dealers, and therefore seeds offered by them, bearing our name, such as Henderson's Snowball Cauliflower, Henderson's Succession, and Henderson's Charleston Wakefield Cabbages, also Henderson's Big Boston Lettuce, Henderson's Easy Blanching Celery, Henderson's White Spine Cucumber and others so offered are not our stocks.

The only way to get our seeds, is to order direct from us and get our seeds, in our bags, and with our labels on them.

Peter Henderson & Co., ^{35 and 37} Cortlandt St., New York
