Select Flower Bulbs,

Imported from HOLLAND,

CULTIVATED AND FOR SALE BY

J. WILLIAM MICHEL,

(FLORIST.)

GRAVOIS GARDEN,

Six miles from the Court House, on the Gravois Road,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

The flower-bulbs offered to Amateurs in this list, are nearly all raised by the Proprietor on his place, or imported from Holland. His collection contains more than 20,000 Bulbs, and is probably the largest in the West.

HARDY BULBS.

The best time to plant them is from the middle of September to the last of October. They shall be planted about 6 inches deep and covered during the winter with a layer of dry leaves or straw.

Imported Bulbs received generally in November, have to be planted as soon as possible.

HYACINTHE.

Price of named sorts 20 cents each, except where noted, or $2,00 per doz. selected by the proprietor.

Mixed, Single or Double per doz. $1,50.

Mixed, Single and Double per doz. $1,50.

Mixed, Single and Double, per hundred $9,00.
