A BEAUTIFUL LAWN

With Flowerfield Grass Seed

Our mixtures are composed of all high-quality grasses to insure your success. Good lawns don't just happen; they are made. Proper care during the summer and fall will give you the results you desire, provided you use good Grass Seed. A copy of "Lawn Care" will be sent with each order of Grass Seed.

One pound will sow 250 square feet of lawn area.

Flowerfield Sunny Lawn Mixture. A blending of high-grade grasses to produce a long-lasting velvety green lawn. We .60 1.60 2.60 5.00 recommend this mixture for full sun or very light shade.

Flowerfield Clover Lawn Mixture. A special mixture for difficult places. A lawn composed of this mixture will stand heavy wear. Clover will help eliminate crabgrass and weeds .60 1.60 2.60 5.00

Flowerfield Shady Lawn Mixture. A mixture of grasses especially adapted to shady locations. These grasses will form a deep velvety green mat. Add lime to sweeten the soil in shady places .60 1.60 2.60 5.00

Note to Long Island gardeners—We recommend and sell Agrico for better lawns and gardens.

ORCHIDS of the GARDEN

IRIS Kaempferi

a Specialty at Flowerfield since 1895

The huge blossoms—often 10 inches or more across—produced in a wide variety of colors that have the richness of an Oriental rug, give the Kaempferi Iris an exotic effect that no other hardy garden flower can duplicate. Originally named Jap Iris, it is now widely recognized by its true name, Iris Kaempferi, a name more suggestive of its regal splendor.

We at Flowerfield have long recognized the beauty that lies in its look of fragility, and have made a specialty of it. Our Kaempferi Iris collection was started here at Flowerfield in 1895 by John Lewis Childs. Since the collection was started, we have garnered 400 named varieties. For the fancier to the lover of the unusual, we can offer an abundance of interesting material. Lack of space limits us in listing our complete list but we are known in the trade to have the most complete collection in the world. All have been grown at Flowerfield, and our introductions such as Betty F. Holmes, Light-in-the-Opal, and Elbrus have won us fame.

You might suppose that such exotic looking flowers would be difficult to grow. On the contrary, anyone can succeed with them.

*LIGHT-IN-THE-OPAL,
60c each;
3 for $1.50

They are perfectly hardy. While they thrive in ground too wet for many flowers, all that is needed to bring them to perfection in the average hardy border is an occasional soaking of the roots.

Moreover, these Irises come into bloom just at a time—late June to mid-July—when the borders are “going off” after the wealth of late spring flowering, and hence their colorful display is doubly welcome.

Our customers, who find they are always welcome, like to visit our fields when the big display is on. But whether or not you can do that, have some of these marvelous flowers to show your friends in your own garden this summer.

Tall Bearded Iris

THE "RAINBOW FLOWER"

For decades the Tall Bearded Irises—the big fellows that fill the hardy border with color during late May and June—have been favorites of gardeners from coast to coast. They thrive everywhere; in fact, they grow so rapidly the finest new varieties quickly become available at very low prices, so that even the smallest budget can include them.

Probably you've grown Irises—but do you know the newer varieties? Beauties in self colors and in artistic blends that truly rival all the hues of the rainbow. They leave the older sorts so far behind that there is no comparison. Try at least a few, and bring your garden up to date.

All Bearded Iris: Each, 25c; 3 for 60c.

TALL BEARDED IRIS GROWN AT FLOWERFIELD

Blue Monarch. A clear violet-blue self, with large flowers on tall stems.

Blue Velvet. A very beautiful flower, deep blue-violet. Well branched, big blooms. 30 inches.

Cinnabar. Standards violet-purple. Falls, flaring, Cotinga-purple. General effect is a rich dark red of one tone. 42 in.

Clara Noyes. An unusual new variety with colors blended much as in a Talisman Rose. Standards are tan, flushed heliotrope, falls reddish bronze. Yellow beard and haft, undertone of the same color.

Desert Dawn. A glorious rich yellow and lavender blend. Beautiful and large.

Ethelwyn Dubuar. A new very large pink.

Frivolite. A very fine French origination, medium size blooms. A beautiful shade of lavender-pink. 28 inches.

Gleam. Very large, luminous, pale blue self, nearly a true blue. Brilliant orange beard. Lasting substance. 48 inches.

Indian Chief. Most popular new Iris. Velvety falls are deep blood-red blended with bronze, and the standards are considerably lighter in tone. Large, tall and well branched. 32 inches.

King Juba. Big and bold, with yellow standards and falls of Indian lake. Medium.

King Midas. Bright bronze-toned Iris. Standards golden buff; falls iridescent garnet-brown, lighted by orange beard and golden haft. 24 inches.

Mme. Serouge. Very beautiful free flowering Iris of great size and vigorous growth. A clear deep violet-blue self. 30 inches.

Omaha. Combination of coppery pink and brownish cinnamon.

Pink Opal. Tallest of lavender-pink. Blooms are large and softly colored. 48 inches.

Selene. Extra large, pure white, of thick substance. A giant.

Snow White. A very pure white, but markings are pale green which gives it a fragile appearance. 36 inches.

SIBERIAN IRIS

Distinctive and Unusual

TYPES OF FLOWERFIELD IRIS

GRACEFUL LONG-KEEPING Siberian Iris

Here's a flower you will want for charmingly artistic arrangements, if for no other reason. Entirely different from both the Tall Bearded and Kaempferi types, these dainty flowers on long slim stems with narrow grass-like foliage seem just made for cutting! Probably you've admired them at flower shows, without realizing that you could have them in your own garden. If you have a pool or a stream they are just a "natural" for planting near it; or you might try them mixed in a border with pink and white peonies. We can promise you an exquisite result. And at a moderate cost you can easily have a dozen varieties or so, varying in height from two to four feet, and giving a succession of their fascinating blooms.

Each 25c; 3 for 60c

Bob White. Pure white.
Butterfly. Soft medium blue.
Duchess of York. Deep violet-blue.
Florrie Riddler. Dark showy blue.
Kingfisher Blue. Very bright sky-blue.
Lady Northcliffe. Rich violet.
Mrs. Rowe. Lavender-pink.
Paillon. Gleaming light blue.

Peggy Perry. Rich dark blue.
Periwinkle. Violet-blue, turquoise midrib.
Perry's Blue. Almost sky-blue.
Pigmy. Low dark violet.
Snow Queen. Low white.
Stardust. Tall white, with yellow throat.
Sunnybrook. Low medium blue.
Thelma. Alice blue with white.
White Dove. White, very tall.

IRIS PUMILA - Dwarf Iris

Autumn Flowering IRIS PUMILA

Flowers two or more times each season. They blossom in the spring along with the other early flowering varieties and again in the autumn beginning in September and continuing until frost.

Autumn Queen. A lovely pure white. Almost everblooming. 18 inches. Each, 40c; 3 for $1.10.

Golden Harvest. A very fine large free flowering, deep yellow with red-gold veining at the throat. A reliable bloomer twice a year. Each, 40c; 3 for $1.10.

Jean Siret. A new yellow everblooming Iris. This variety and Lieut. Chavagnac are the most persistent bloomers of the entire family. They begin to flower quite early in the spring and at that time have a very long flowering season. They also have an equally long autumn flowering season. In a favorable year they flower from September to the middle of December. Each, 40c; 3 for $1.10.

Lieut. Chavagnac. A new everblooming, fragrant, brilliant violet variety with all the good qualities of Jean Siret, including its everblooming qualities. These two go well together. Each, 60c; 3 for $1.50.

IRIS CRISTATA

Lovely pale orchid for naturalizing in semi-shade. They flower in May and do not grow more than 4 inches.

Each 30c; 3 for 85c; doz., $3.00.

Spring Flowering IRIS PUMILA

Minature Flag. These beautiful little Irises do not grow over 4 inches high and bloom in April and May. They are fine for bordering flower beds or planting in the rock-garden.

Cyanea. Purple-blue.

The Bride. A clear, chaste white.

Prairie Gem. Butter yellow.

Each, 30c; 3 for 85c; doz., $3.00.

IRIS PUMILA—DWARF IRIS

The rating shown at the left side of each variety listed has been established by the American Peony Society. Each variety has been rated for excellence by them on a scale of 10. Nevertheless, some varieties not favored by a high rating have proven to be more reliable plants than their more highly rated neighbors.

PEONIES

"THE EVERLASTING PERENNIAL"

If you want flowers that you can plant once and then forget for the rest of your life—set out some Peonies! Not only do they live and thrive year after year in the same place, without any bothersome dividing and replanting, but they actually improve and give you more blooms, season after season. Small wonder the Chinese, most ancient and sagacious of gardeners, have always held the Peony, which they were the first to develop, in the highest esteem.

All things considered, there is probably no other flower that will provide, over a period of years, and in proportion to the time and care demanded, such bountiful dividends of beauty as this old favorite. And to their other attractions, many of the modern varieties add real fragrance. Surely here is a flower that you cannot afford to omit from your planting—particularly as it is such a rugged grower that it can be treated almost as a shrub, grows by itself in turf or in front of shrubbery, without benefit of a flower "bed."

(Important: Frequently gardeners are disappointed with results from Peony roots that have been stored over winter, with consequent drying out and other injuries. Your Peonies, shipped from Flowerfield, are taken from the field when your order is received, packed in moist sphagnum, and shipped the same day. Direct from our own fields to your garden in 48 hours! However, PLEASE ORDER EARLY for best results.)

HAVE YOU YET MADE THE ACQUAINTANCE OF

Miniature Dahlias?

THE EASY-TO-GROW CUT FLOWER OF GRACE AND DISTINCTION

IF NOT, the greatest flower surprise of many years is waiting for you! With them, on dwarf bushy plants that require no staking, disbudding and fussing, you can have, for weeks on end, a constant supply of little dahlias which, in everything except size, reproduce all the beauty of the giant prize-winning blooms of the big dahlia shows.

For the home garden, the smaller size of the Miniatures is a distinct advantage. The flowers, which average about 3 inches in diameter, are ideal for cutting and for arrangements, for which purpose they have become extremely popular. The stocky plants (2 to 4 feet tall, according to variety and condition) are not too big for the mixed flower border; or for planting, 18-20 inches apart each way, for a colorful mass effect. They are ideal for planting after early spring bulbs or wherever a summer "bare spot" is to be filled.

But the greatest advantage of these Miniatures is their easy culture and their "cut-and-come-again" quality. The more you cut 'em the better they like it! If you haven't yet tried any Miniatures, include a few in your next order, and take our word for it that you will be more than delighted with them, even if you don't care for ordinary dahlias.

OXALIS

Clover-like foliage with delicate pink or white flowers. They grow and bloom profusely. Showy as border plants or in the rockery. They are good subjects for pot-plants or hanging baskets to adorn porch or terrace. Not hardy.

Flowerfield has chosen the following varieties as best:

Shamrock. Four-leaf-clover-like foliage. Flowers rose colored.

Lasiandra. Like above with pink flowers.

Deppei. Three-leaf-clover-like foliage with white flowers.

12 for 25c; 100 for $1.50.

CINNAMON VINE

GLORIOSA—Climbing Lily

Superba Rothschildiana

A splendid low climber, easy to grow in the garden, it does well in sheltered spots out-of-doors. Grows 5-6 ft. high, producing a dozen or more gorgeous lily-like flowers which open a bright yellow and red but change to a deep scarlet. In bloom through the summer and autumn months. Very unusual and rare bulbs. Store like Gladiolus in winter.

Strong tubers, 60c each; 3 for $1.50.

CINNAMON VINE

Well-known hardy climber with beautiful glossy, heart-shaped leaves and sweet-scented white flowers. Very quick grower.

Each, 10c; 3 for 25c; 12 for $1.00.

Are You Overlooking THE GLORIES OF

LOOK these and the next two pages over with care, for on them you will find some of the most satisfactory and easily grown of all garden flowers. Realizing their importance to the gardener, we make a specialty of them here at Flowerfield, and you will thank us for introducing them to you.

Some of the fine, too often neglected, bulbous flowers, your grandmother grew and loved. Today they are still as good for the modern garden. One of their great advantages lies in the ease with which they can be grown, and their freedom from insect and disease troubles. Try at least a few of them in your borders this summer and get a new flower thrill!

ISMENE CALATHINA

Peruvian Daffodil

A stately and impressive summer-flowering bulb having very large, snowy white, amaryllis-like blooms which are delightfully fragrant, and very easy to grow. Our extra-large bulbs will send up strong, tall flower stems which bear one to four of its magnificent blossoms.

An excellent pot-plant or garden bulb, it is one of the choicest of all garden subjects.

The bulbs should be kept in a dry and warm place until June, at which time they should be planted in a well-drained fertile soil. In October they should be taken up and stored away.

Monster bulbs, 25c each; 3 for 60c; doz. for $2.00.

ISMENE CALATHINA

Summer-Flowering Bulbs

FANCY-LEAVED CALADIUMS

Beautiful, multi-colored leaves are the attraction of this very useful summer flowering bulb. Planted outside in mid-May, they make an unusual and very effective border. Or they may be forced indoors in pots with equal ease.

Jumbo bulbs. Each, 30c; 3 for 85c; 12 for $3.00.

FANCY-LEAVED CALADIUMS

MADEIRA VINE

Climbing Mignonette

This lovely vine, much prized for adorning porches and arbors, produces 10 to 20 feet of growth from its tuberous roots in a season. The foliage is most attractive and remains free from insects. An abundance of delightfully fragrant white flowers appear in late summer and fall.

The plant will not withstand frost but is hardy if given protection in localities having mild winters.

10c each; 3 for 25c;
12 for $1.00.

TUBEROSE, DWARF PEARL

TUBEROSE

Dwarf Pearl. Double, waxy white, fragrant flowers on spikes 2½ to 3 feet high. Very attractive and useful in the border. Plant indoors in pots in March or directly into the garden in May. Cover with one inch of soil. Store indoors over winter.

3 for 25c; 12 for 60c; 100 for $4.00.

MADEIRA VINE

MONTBRETIAS

Montbretias resemble miniature Gladiolus, are fine for cutting, and excellent for border planting. They prefer a light, loamy soil, well enriched with leaf-mold, but no manure or chemical fertilizer should touch the roots. A little bonemeal and a light top-dressing of lime is beneficial. They will thrive either in partial shade or full sunlight, but see that the moisture supply is good at all times.

Fire King. Fiery red. 3 for 35c;
12 for $1.20; 100 for $7.00.

SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS

HYACINTHUS (Galtonia) CANDICANS

HYACINTHUS (Galtonia) CANDICANS

This showy bulbous plant, growing 3 to 5 feet high, produces 20 to 30 thimble-shaped white flowers on each spike. They bloom in August and September. A mass of a dozen or more bulbs produces a delightful effect. The bulbs are hardy in localities having moderate winters, and do best in a rich, moist soil.

Each, 15c; 3 for 40c; 12 for $1.40.

YELLOW CALLA LILY

Here is a delightful and an unusual summer flowering bulb for your garden. Plant clumps of them in the foreground of your shrub border or in your perennial garden and enjoy these great yellow trumpets and the curious white-spotted foliage. Partial shade and moist soil are its simple requirements. The bulbs should be dug in the fall and stored over winter, like Gladiolus.

Jumbo bulbs, each, 30c; 3 for 85c;
12 for $3.00.

TIGRIDIA Shell Flower; Tiger Flower

An interesting garden subject with flowers of brilliant scarlet, rose, yellow, and orange colorings. Few flowers are more gorgeously colored. Plant in sunny location in borders or beds in a well-drained soil. Not hardy. Grows 2 to 3 feet tall and blooms from July until frost.

Mixed Hybrids, each, 15c; 3 for 40c; 12 for $1.50.

ST. BRIGID ANEMONES

ANEMONE ST. BRIGID

These popular flowers are exceedingly brilliant when in bloom and excellent for cutting. Plant 6 inches deep in moist but well-drained soil. Cover slightly in the winter. The flowers are large, with a wide range of colors.
3 for 25c; 12 for 70c.

CALADIUM ESCULENTUM (Elephant Ear)

Excellent as specimen plants for lawns or borders. The plants have a tropical appearance with their large green leaves veined with deep velvety green. Plant outside after May 1st, where they will receive plenty of moisture.
Mammoth bulbs, 9-11 in., each, 15c; 3 for 40c; 12 for $1.35.

AMARYLLIS HYBRIDS

There are few bulbs that will give the amateur gardener more for his money or his time than the Amaryllis.

This is the finest race of Amaryllis in cultivation, having a fine form of large flowers as well as a diversity of colors and markings. From light rose to deep red flowers. We offer the mixed bulbs only.

Each, 50c; 3 for $1.35; 12 for $5.00.

MIXED MONTBRETIAS

12 for 75c (See page 25)

AMARYLLIS HALLI (Lycoris Sqamigera)

The strap-like foliage appears in early summer and dies to the ground in July. In early August the flower stems appear, bearing large clusters of lavender-pink, fragrant blooms. Excellent in sun or partial shade. Multiplies rapidly, forming large clumps. Very showy and attractive.

Each, $1.00; 3 for $2.50; 6 for $4.50.

Tuberous-Rooted BEGONIAS

The Tuberous Rooted Begonia is one of the few garden subjects we can recommend for planting in shade. In shady corners of your garden, or in a window box on a shady porch, you can enjoy the exotic beauty of the tuberous rooted Begonia. They flourish in rich, moist soil. This soil need only be six to eight inches deep, which shows their adaptability to use in window boxes. The flowers are in a wide range of forms and colors. We have selected the most popular colors and offer them in three types. The singles produce large flowers which make an exceptionally fine appearance in mass plantings. The double camellia-flowered type is perhaps the most popular of the Begonias, closely resembling a Camellia. The frilled type is a very graceful and unusual flower.

Giant Single Flowering.

● For your convenience, we enclose our order blank, and on receipt of each order from you, we will send you new order blanks. Now, through our Mail Order Department, you can get the same prompt service, the same quality of "Bonded" Bulbs, Roots and Seeds that have sustained the Flowerfield tradition for so many years! We hope to hear from you in the very near future, and again we say that each order from you will receive our prompt care and personal attention.

Flowerfield Bulb Farm, Flowerfield,
Long Island, N. Y.

flowerfield bulb farm
flowerfield, long island, new york

1 Because every order received by mail at Flowerfield Bulb Farm is filled with "Bonded" Bulbs, Roots, or Seeds. All products of Flowerfield Bulb Farm are bonded so that you may have the same confidence and faith in dealing with us by mail as you would have in dealing face to face. Each order is shipped with our printed Flowerfield guarantee.

2 Because Flowerfield quality has been developed in the John Lewis Childs tradition. Many of our present-day customers were sending their mail orders to Flowerfield years ago when Mr. Childs was personally managing this famous Bulb, Root and Seed Farm. The present management offers you the same quality of Bulbs, Roots and Seeds that made John Lewis Childs world-famous as a frequent blue-ribbon winner!

3 Because Flowerfield products continue to win prizes year after year, thanks to the knowledge, experience and policies developed in the John Lewis Childs tradition since 1874. Recent evidence of Flowerfield quality is noticed in the prizes won by Flowerfield-grown Peony, Iris and Gladiolus at the New York World's Fair, 1939 and 1940 "Gardens on Parade."

4 Because our Guarantee is a money-back this pledge to you in our offer of service: "If you can buy the same quality and sizes of Bulbs and Roots, the same select grade of Seeds, at prices lower than those listed in the pages of this Catalog, we will refund the difference to you!"

5 Because our Guarantee is a money-back Guarantee. On our printed guarantee certificate we state that "we will refund, without question, the full purchase price you paid if our products do not give the satisfactory results that you have a right to expect." All we ask is that, in case of any dissatisfaction, you notify us within twelve months from the time your shipment was received.

modern gladiolus

We are justly proud of the place that the name John Lewis Childs, our founder, holds in the history of the Gladiolus. The Childsi type, introduced by him, marked a revolution in the development of this popular flower. John Lewis Childs was truly the man who developed the Gladiolus to its present glory. But even he could scarcely have imagined the almost unbelievable range of colors that we present day hybridizers have achieved.

From our 40 acres of Glads, we offer huge exhibition varieties such as Greta Garbo, Myrna, and Picardy, which will win prizes for you at your local show; and such attractive cutting varieties for home decoration as Beacon, Gate of Heaven, Minuet, Mother Machree, Star of Bethlehem, and Vagabond Prince. To be sure of an uninterrupted succession of blooms, both in the garden and for cutting, plant a dozen or more bulbs of each of two or three varieties, every two weeks, right up until the fourth of July.

The Gladiolus we offer are our pride. They are grown at Flowerfield, on Long Island, and so are suited to a northern climate. The bulbs you will receive are the best you can buy, and we guarantee them to flower or your money will be refunded.

We plant only young healthy stock which is allowed to flower just enough for us to determine that the variety is true to name, then the bloom is snipped to conserve the strength in the bulb. The latest and best methods of preventive treatments against all diseases are used to assure clean bulbs.

One word of warning about Glads—don't buy "blooming size" or "large size" bulbs. As you doubtless know, Gladiolus are graded 1 to 6, No. 1 being the largest size (anything over 1½ inches in diameter), and No. 6 being the smallest (anything over ¼ and less than ½ inch). Even the smallest size will sometimes bloom, but both the flower and spike will be small and weak. Only the No. 1 size bulb is a fully matured bulb, fit and ready to give you the magnificent flower you expect. We sell only No. 1 size bulbs, guaranteed to give the biggest and best flower, a true garden beauty.

MOTHER MACHREE
A smoky lavender, tinged with a salmon-pink overcast at the petal's edge, whose beauty cannot be described in words.

On the next few pages, we give our selected list of Gladiolus. From the over 6000 named varieties of them, we have chosen the best of the new varieties and have added them to the list of popular favorites. We can offer any one of them with complete assurance in their ability to please you.

GOLDEN DREAM

HARDY EVERBLOOMING

Roses

The varieties we offer are all strong 2-year field grown plants. They have been tried out and found to be best in vigor, color, form and fragrance. They will flower from June until frost and will give you many years of great satisfaction.

Our Roses are the finest available; they are noted for their strong healthy, fibrous roots, and their vigorous canes.

Climbing Roses are always beautiful and useful. Plant them near arbors, fences, and trellises and you will enjoy a glorious display of color every season.

Ami Quinard. Blackish maroon buds opening into flowers of rich velvety red. Fragrant. Strong upright grower and fine producer.

Autumn. Striking burnt orange buds of perfect form. The fragrant open flower is a rainbow of colors, red, orange, yellow and pink. One of the best.

Charles K. Douglas. Large semi-double flowers of flaming scarlet flushed velvety crimson.

Condesa de Sastago. Bright golden yellow buds striped with a brilliant capucine red, turn to big double fragrant Roses of similar color.

Edith Nellie Perkins. Large, fragrant flowers, salmon-pink based gold inside. (See picture, page 38.)

E. G. Hill. Deep maroon, long pointed bud, shading to a deep velvety red as it develops. Free flowering, strong and vigorous grower.

Etoile de Holland. The star of all red Roses. Brilliant dark red, large double flowers on long stems and truly fragrant. Stems are almost thornless and the foliage healthy.

Golden Dawn. Straw-yellow bud, flushed old rose, develops into large double sunflower-yellow, fragrant flowers. One of the best yellows for the garden.

Heinrich Gaede. Long pointed nasturtium-red buds, opening to very large, double, orange-yellow flowers.

Heinrich Wendland. Maroon buds form into unfading copper-scarlet blooms with an orange flush. Back of petals are deep golden orange. Very fragrant flowers on upright plants.

Joanna Hill. Long pointed buds opening to creamy yellow blooms, flushed salmon.

Killarney Double White. Pure white buds and flowers. Fragrant. (See picture, page 38.)

Margaret McGredy. Orange-scarlet flowers based yellow and beautifully formed. Moderately fragrant and will flower all season long.

McGredy's Scarlet. Brilliant scarlet fully double flowers. Very free flowering.

Mrs. E. P. Thom. Scented canary-yellow flowers. (See picture, page 38.)

Mrs. Henry Morse. Two-tone pink. Bright carmine on the outside of petals, flesh-pink on the inside. Moderately fragrant.

Mrs. P. S. Du Pont. A deep rich golden yellow which does not fade. Long pointed buds which form medium-sized flowers in abundance.

DOUBLOONS

Plant Patent No. 152

Doublons—this golden beauty from nature's treasure chest, more precious than pirate gold—planted in a lovely garden, will live, climb, bloom and bring great happiness to all who see it. Justly famed as the best all-purpose yellow Climber.

Large, golden flowers, fairly double, literally cover the plant in delightful clusters for a long period. Dark velvety green foliage.

$1.00 each; 3 for $2.50; doz., $10.00.

WORLD'S FAIR

Plant Patent No. 362

The Rose sensation of the great New York World's Fair, named for it, admired by the throngs in "Gardens on Parade." Large clusters of velvety, blackish scarlet flowers almost hide the luxuriant foliage.

Honored by First Award, "1940 All-American Rose Selections, Floribunda Classification."

$1.00 each; 3 for $2.50; 12 for $10.00; 25 for $18.75.

ROME GLORY

Plant Patent No. 304

Scarlet-crimson glory—unchallenged in a wide bright world of color. Named in honor of the third millenium of the founding of the great Eternal City. Stands cutting well and its mammoth blooms make glorious bouquets. Awarded Gold Medal S.A.F., 1938.

Buds are formed like perfect florists' American Beauties—only better. Large, double, scarlet-crimson blooms of exquisite form. Fragrance is superb—alluring—lingering.

FLOWER SEEDS for 1941

Our list of flower seed is not exhaustive—but it is a most select list. We have chosen only superior strains for our catalog.

There are several types of flower seeds which we have indicated through our lists by the following symbols:

Note
This
Key
Know
What
You
Buy

A - ANNUAL

These annuals are the easiest to raise and earliest to flower. They require from 2 to 3 months. The seed should be sown directly in the garden after the danger of frost has passed.

A - ANNUAL

These annuals require 3 to 6 months to bloom and a little more care in handling. For early bloom start indoors or in hotbeds from January to March, transplant to outdoors after danger of frost has passed.

B - BIENNIAL

Seeds sown during July and August will flower the following year. Unlike perennials, the plants die after their first blooming season. The seed should be sown in flats or seed beds and transplanted during September and October.

P - PERENNIAL

Seeds grown during July and August and transplanted out in September and October usually bloom the following year and each year thereafter. Many, however, will bloom the first year from seed if sown indoors, during February and March, and good strong plants produced for planting out during April and May. The bloom will usually be out of season. The following year, however, they will bloom in their proper period.

PREPARING SEED BEDS

An open seed bed should not exceed 4 feet in width, it can be any convenient length desired. Dig the area over well and make sure the soil is completely broken up. Add a generous amount of fine peat moss and sand. To protect beds from sharp winds, surround it with boards 12 inches high.

Sow perennial and biennial seeds thickly between May and August in shallow drills or rows 5 to 6 inches apart across the bed, cover lightly and press the soil gently over the rows. Labels should be inserted in front of each row.

Do not allow the bed to become hard and dry at any time nor should it ever be kept too wet. Lack of water or excessive water are very harmful.

The seed should be protected from direct sun rays by burlap or thin strips of wood placed 1½ inches apart. The bed should also be protected from very heavy rains.

AGERATUM - Floss Flower (A) Superb for Edging

Good blues are scarce among annuals. This is one of the reasons why Ageratum enjoys such a great popularity. Usually its dainty and feathery bloom completely covers the plant. The low growing or dwarf variety appears to produce many more blooms. The taller growing varieties, however, furnish a longer stemmed cut flower. An excellent bedding and edging plant whose color combines delightfully with pink in the garden.

Blue Ball. Rich blue flowers on compact 4-inch plants. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; ¼ oz., 40c.

Midget Blue. (A.A.S. Silver Medal 1939.) A very fine dwarf not more than 2-3 inches high. The foliage is almost covered with Ageratum-blue flowers. Excellent for edging. Pkt., 20c; 3 pkts., 50c; 1/16 oz., 60c.

Blue Perfection. Large heads of amethyst blue flowers which grow about 8 inches high. Ideal for cutting. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; ¼ oz., 40c.

Fairy Pink. A new soft salmon-pink, very compact plants about 5 inches high. Pkt., 25c; 3 pkts., 60c; 1/16 oz., $1.35.

Imperial White. Pure white flowers, semi-dwarf plants, 5-6 inches high. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; ¼ oz., 40c.

AGERATUM, MIDGET BLUE

ALYSSUM, LILAC QUEEN

ALYSSUM - Madwort (A and P)

Easily grown, blooming profusely all summer and fall. Ideal for rockeries, edgings and borders. It combines well with blue Ageratum or blue Lobelia.

Carpet of Snow. Pure white flowers produced freely. It grows about 3 inches high and spreads easily. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/4 oz., 30c; 1/2 oz., 50c; 1 oz., 85c.

Little Gem. Small white flowers cover the dwarf, compact plants which grow 4-5 inches high. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/2 oz., 40c; 1 oz., 75c.

ANCHUSA - Summer Forget-Me-Not (A and P)

Free-flowering plants with charming large Forget-Me-Not-like flowers in graceful sprays produced from early summer till late fall. One of the best blue flowers for the garden. Fine for cutting.

Blue Bird. Dwarf, compact bushy plants with indigo-blue flowers. 18 inches tall. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/2 oz., 40c.

Capensis. (Cape Forget-Me-Not). Rich

Lilac Queen. Deep lavender flowers on compact plants. Grows about 6 inches tall. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/2 oz., 40c; 1 oz., 75c.

Gold Dust (Saxatile Compactum). (P). Yellow. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/4 oz., 30c.

Snow Cloth. Plants lie flat and are a compact mass of pure white flowers. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/4 oz., 50c; 1 oz., 85c.

gentian-blue flowers on 2-foot plants. Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; 1/2 oz., 40c.

Feltham Pride (Improved Dropmore). (P). Large bright blue flowers and more compact habit. Pkt., 25c; 1/8 oz., $1.00.

ANTIRRHINUM - Snapdragon [A] New Rust-Proof Varieties

The fantastic form of the Snapdragons is found in too few of our annual flowers produced from seed. Their delicate rose, yellow, deep maroon, fiery crimson and orange-scarlet colors are most attractive. They are adaptable to cutting, splendid in mass plantings, and have an irresistible charm as individual plants through the annual bed.

Recent Introductions

Rosalie. A rich deep rose with an underlying tone of topaz or amber. Tube and lips are of the same color with intense depth and richness. See illustration on page 51. Pkt., 25c; 3 for 60c.

Golden Rod. The most rugged and rust-resistant of all Snapdragons. Plants are base branching, 26 inches tall with many erect, well filled spikes of golden yellow flowers. Excellent for garden and cutting. Pkt., 25c; 3 pkts., 60c.

Super Majestic Type

These rust-resistant, base branching varieties are the latest and most important developments in Snapdragons. Hardy growth, immense flowers and lovely colors make them an ideal item for the garden. 16-20 inches in height. See illustration on page 42.

Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c; ½ oz., 60c.

FOR EARLIEST BLOOM

HOW TO PREPARE YOUR SEED BOXES, POTS OR FLATS FOR EARLY PLANTING OF ANNUALS AND PERENNIALS

Select a shallow receptacle or flat, 3 to 4 inches deep, having a hole or holes in the bottom for drainage.

Make a mixture of good garden soil and an equal amount of clean sand to which add some leaf mold or fine peat moss. Sift the mixture free of all roughage and stones. Fill your receptacle about ¾ full, gently pressed down.

The seed should be sown on the surface and lightly covered with sandy soil. After sowing, gently press down. Do not cover very fine seed, just press down gently into the soil. Be sure to label each variety for future identification.

Plunge the receptacle into water allowing the water to soak up from the bottom. If it is necessary to water from the top, do it carefully with a fine gentle spray. Keep your flats moist but not wet. To keep dark, cover with a sheet of newspaper, but remove the paper as soon as the seeds have sprouted and place the seed box in a light location.

Transplant after seedlings have made their second leaves, and have become large enough to handle. Allow each plant about 2 inches of space or plant singly in 2-inch pots until you are ready to plant in the garden.

CAMPANULA - Bellflower (P and B)

They Include the Cup and Soucer Types

This is one of the most delightful garden subjects. The exquisite arrangement of bell-shaped flowers around the flower spike form a perfect pyramid of bloom during the early summer. Their soft blues, whites, and rosy carmine colors are easily handled in garden arrangements.

Medium - Single Canterbury Bell (B)

Blooms in June.

Blue	Rosy Carmine
White	Mixed

Pkt., 10c; 3 pkts., 25c.

YELLOW KING HUMBERT

A New Deal for Cannas

TO BE VALUED NOW FOR THEIR ATTRACTIVE COLORING AS WELL AS FOR THE TROPICAL EFFECTS OF THEIR FOLIAGE

A strong suspicion that Cannas have long been among our most abused and unappreciated flowers is justified in spite of the fact that the humped and variously shaped beds that embellished parks, railroad stations and the like some years ago are no longer prevalent. Unprejudiced consideration of the Cannas to be found on the market today prove how wrong we have been in our estimate of them.

Long prized as a foliage plant, we can grow them now for their exquisitely colored flowers as well. A wide range of shades has been developed, leading far from the harsh reds and yellows. Today flowers of unbelievable size growing in graceful and stately clusters, rival, if they do not outstrip, the foliage as an inducement for growing Cannas.

Choose the height, then your color preference from a constantly growing list, and finally bring in a foliage contrast. We have been so accustomed to seeing Cannas used exclusively for mass planting in beds that most of us have failed to realize that the plants have a graceful habit of growth. This natural grace of individual plants can be displayed only when they have been planted far enough apart to permit spreading of the plants as they attain full size. For example, Cannas are sturdy enough to hold their own with shrubs and provide a colorful summer display when skillfully interplanted in shrub borders or groupings. Bare spaces inevitably show up in perennial borders, too, and such spots might be given definite interest from a carefully selected clump of Cannas. If there is a terrace or formal pool, large pots each containing one or two Cannas could be strategically placed.

Cannas should be allowed to stay in the ground in autumn as long as they will grow. If bulb planting does not interfere, they should be left until the tops are killed by frost. Dig up the roots in the morning, permit them to dry all day in the sun, then store in a warm dry place to prevent decay. They may be buried in sand if this is convenient.

Prices of Cannas: Each, 20c; 3 for 50c; doz., $1.50.

Magazine HORTICULTURE—

(The semi-monthly publication of the Massachusetts Horticulture Society) recently published the following article about Cannas, written by Dorothy H. Jenkins. The article attracted so much attention that we have requested permission of the publishers of Horticulture to quote from it, so that our customers may enjoy Miss Jenkins' observations.
